vol.1

ONE POINT, THAT'S ALL IT TOOK

Well, that was a nail-biter! Bernard and Simon went toe-to-toe in a match that came right down to the final end, with Bernard edging it 21-20. As if that wasn't enough drama for the weekend, Simon laced up his trainers the very next day and smashed out a marathon PB of 3:12. Quite the double act — huge well done to both.

And We're Off

Someone up there must like us — the sun absolutely beamed down on opening day. Around 60 of us gathered on Saturday the 25th to kick off the new season, with incoming President Judith Heaton and Captain Alaric Evans doing the honours. Here's to a season full of good bowls, great company, and plenty of laughs along the way.

Last One Out

Just a friendly heads-up — we've got a family of foxes happily living behind the Sun Inn Wall, and they're rather curious about our green. If you're the last to leave, do us all a favour and pop the metal mesh covers back on at the far end. Saves a heap of trouble in the morning.
